Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for allowance of the claims is the inclusion of "said processor including a network interface adapted to cooperate with a matching network interface located in the terminal through an object file interface, comprising at least one intelligent agent for establishing correspondence, including one or more protocol conversion and script translation, between information exchanged with said object file and information passing through the network interface means, and assigned to at least said object file, so that the embedded system constitutes an information server in the network." in claims 16, 19, 22, 25, 28. Chen et al. U.S patent # 5,590,197, and Linden et al. U.S patent #: 6,549,773 do not have this limitation.

The Examiner's interpretation of the claim language is based upon Applicant's the enabling portions of the specification, (pages 15-18) and Applicant's arguments on remarks received on 22 February 2005 (pages 7-11). Therefore, Applicant's instant claims are considered to be allowable.

2. Claims 16-30, which is renumbered as 1-15 are allowed.
3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
